25X1	the loading. The train presumably left during the night on 27 September. On that day, the Flugplatz Kaserne was occupied by about 100 troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets.
25X1	Comment. The units of the 597th Mtz Rifle Regt of the 207th Mtz Rifle Div were presumably entrained for exercises in the north section of Letzling Heath. According to orders by the regional railroad head-quarters in Magdeburg, loadings were to take place in Quedlinburg during this period of time.
